ABOUT US

Alfa Consulting is a global consulting firm, renowned for the design of pragmatic strategies and the improvement of the execution capabilities of large companies.

Our group has more than 3,000 consultants and 70 offices all over the world, allowing us to develop our clients' projects globally.

We combine strategic and design capabilities with deep business knowledge specialized by industry, enabling us to support our clients in strategic projects, providing a practical and effective approach.

What makes Alfa Great Place to Work®?

Participating in exciting projects and working side by side with world-renowned clients, teaming up with colleagues hailing from the best universities and business schools, learning about different industries and business practices.

Continuously growing. Always innovating.

Work-life balance

Working at a consulting firm is a very rewarding challenge. It involves first-hand knowledge of different industries and sectors, the ability to switch from team to team depending on the project, working at different locations and experiencing very diverse opportunities and situations.

This constant change accelerates your personal development and learning, but also requires consistent organizational skills.

In order to maintain our team's high performance, it is necessary to invest in the improvement of our employees' work-life balance. We firmly believe that investing in our team members is equal to investing in our company's success.

WE ARE COMMITTED TO DEVELOPING OUR TEAM'S PROFESSIONAL POTENTIAL.

THIS IS YOUR CHANCE

Working at Alfa is much more than simply being a consultant. It's about getting your feet wet with each and everyone of our clients.

Develop and advance your professional career in a work environment in which the principles of respect and proximity prevail.

Support our clients in strategic projects from start to finish, wherever they are.

Participate in the conception of pragmatic strategies and the enhancement of executive capacities of leading companies.

Feel backed up and guided in your professional career.

Share successes and challenges with our clients and the rest of the team.

Working at Alfa means growing both professionally and personally with every project. Alfa gives you the chance of facing new challenges every day, and what is more important deliver long lasting impact for the clients"

Joaquim Grau
